

Christlike Youth Camp – Information Sheet

The Christlike Youth Camp is organised by the IBTI for young people from all over Europe between the age of 16 and 20. This year 's theme will be “Christlike – Receive the Power” so during our sessions we will be looking at what it means to make a difference in our generation by being empowered for mission.

The camp is a great opportunity to connect with people with different cultures and nationalities. In order for this to be possible, the camp activities will all take place in English and a fair knowledge of the language is required to be able to attend.

Camp Regulations

1. As a camper, you are expected to attend all our activities and to keep the staff informed about where you are at all times.
2. We appreciate the relationship between staff and campers to be as friendly as possible, however as a camper, it is important that you respect the leaders and are willing to follow their guidelines.
3. During the camp you will be asked to contribute to living in community by helping with house duties and being part of a kitchen duty and washing-up rota.
4. English is the official language of our camp and campers are required to respect this at all times. There cannot be any excluding of people who speak a different language or forming of “cultural groups” in general.
5. It is not allowed to start any romantic relationship during the camp. Campers of the opposite gender are not allowed to enter each other’s rooms or to isolate themselves in secluded places.
6. The possession or consumption of alcohol, cigarettes or any form of drugs is not allowed.
7. The IBTI is not liable for any stolen personal items which were left unattended.

These camp regulations have been set up to ensure safety and an enjoyable experience for all the participants. By sending you application you automatically agree to abide by the above code of conduct.

The IBTI reserves the right to send campers home without refund of fee in the case of repeated or severe breaching of the regulations.
