These two charities have been working side by side for many years and this policy is to confirm the working relationship of the two bodies.

The IBTC is the training college and the CCI is the missions and projects initiatives of the IBTC. The two charities have similar objectives and mission statements.

International Bible Training College – IBTC (abridged version of the IBTC mission statement and objects)

The mission of the IBTC is to provide Biblical teaching according to our statement of beliefs in the Pentecostal and Evangelical traditions of faith, and to train men and women from all parts of the world, so as to equip them to function in Christian ministry and for them to return to their own countries, to a broadening of intent which includes: personal Christian development, academic and vocational learning, indigenous and missions ministry.

Compassion and Care International – CCI (abridged version of the CCI mission statement and objects)

The mission of the CCI is to bring relief of poverty, sickness and distress and the advancement of education worldwide; including the relief of financial need and suffering among victims of natural or other kinds of disaster. The CCI is an inter-denominational, non-profit organisation with all support for mission endeavours being raised by the generous donations of our donors. Our aim is to show God's love in a practical and spiritual way. Biblical values are the bedrock of our vision and commitment.
